

Outside of Me, there is no peace. Outside of Me, there are no accomplishments.

So do the things that you do, but trust in Me to bring to pass the answers and to develop the strategies to fulfill all things. For yes, I desire your accompaniment, says the Lord. I desire your partnership with Me. But you must see that the things that I do within the earth, I do by My grace. I do by My power. I do by My Spirit.

All the things that man continues to try to do, even within the church, many times he is doing them with his own strength. He is accomplishing them with his own mind. He is developing the strategies out of his own soul.

But I say now, I am looking for those who will allow Me to bring, by My Spirit, the wisdom, the strategy, the anointing, the grace, and the abilities, so that the things that are accomplished are accomplished by man and through man, but it is My Spirit upon them that brings them to pass. It is not by their wisdom. It is not by their great abilities, but it is because they have allowed Me to flow through them.

This is a time and a season, says the Lord, that I desire to work on the earth through My people in a way that many have not seen before.

There has been a generation that has passed that at one time knew Me, that at one time would not move without Me. But there are those today who are willing to keep on doing what they are doing because their grandfather did it before, because their father did it, because they have seen it a certain way.

But I am saying I desire to move in a new way with a fresh wind and a fresh fire. I am looking for those who will yield to Me, who will follow not their own ways, who will not yield to their own flesh, who will not yield to their own minds, but who will allow My Spirit to well up within them and will follow after that which I have placed there.

Yes, you will do your thing, but allow Me to do My thing. Allow Me to do those things which man cannot do. Allow Me to move in ways that man would wonder, "How could this happen?"

It does not happen by coming up with a new idea. It does not happen by having the most attractive ways to bring people in. It comes by allowing My Spirit to move from within you. It comes by waiting in My presence and doing that which I say to do.

I have endured with man and will continue to endure, but I long for those who will stop doing things their own way, stop following their own abilities, and allow Me to move in ways that will shake nations, that will transform lands.

Be a part of those who will die to their own flesh, their own ways, their own accomplishments, and their own ideas. Allow Me to bring, to build, and to develop the things that I desire.

Says the Lord, be among those who will allow Me to build My church—the one that I have called, the one that I have spoken—not the one that man has decided, not the one that was voted on, but the one that I have said, "This is My church. These are My called-out ones."

Allow Me to breathe upon you once again. Allow Me to move upon the earth once again. Be among those who will listen and obey only the wind of My Spirit—not the winds of (man's) doctrines, not the winds of (man's) ideas, not the winds of man's ways, but the wind of My Spirit; the strength, the steadfastness of My love, of My anointing, of My presence.

Not the wind that blows in and dissipates and disappears, but the wind of My Spirit that is everlasting and that changes the things around it.

Allow Me to come. Receive from My presence.
